GOVERNMENT SOAP FACTORY, BANGALORE.

16th June 1951.

The Director of Industries &
Commerce in Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

Messrs. Amal Chand Motilal (Inc. Soaps Dept. Bombay), Rose Ville, Civil Lines, Cawnpore, who have been recently appointed as our sole agents for the sale of "Pyrene Soaps in U.P., J.P. and other Northern States, have written to us to say that they have since organised a special soap department by name of "The Industan Industrial Corporation". They have accordingly printed a letter-heads bearing a portrait of Industan Industries Corporation Cawnpore & Calcutta, the former Amal Chand's. Since the Industrial Corporation have consistently not been mentioned in the letter-head of our Agents Application Instruction. I would like to know if it is necessary for us to alter the title of the agents to the Industan Industrial Corporation. I enclose herewith a copy of their letter dated 6th June 1951 for your information.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Industrial Chemist &
Chemical Engineer.
